

The Africana Americanxs In Transit Across The Black Kairibe symposium and screening series is presented in conjunction with the online exhibition that features over 30 works of art and films from the Howard University Gallery of Art Collection and contemporary African American and Afro-Caribbean diaspora artists. The exhibit interrogates five major themes at the axis of a multidirectional path that intersect historical, socio-political, and artistic movements, as seen in the lives of African Americans, Afro-Caribbeans, and U.S. Africana Caribbean Latinxs.
