

Tabitha Rose is a graduating Acting major at Howard University, celebrated for her versatility, magnetic stage presence, and lifelong passion for storytelling. From her first school performances to the Howard stage, she's honed a craft that bridges theater, film, and movement arts. Her credits include The Wizard of Oz, Hairspray, Boys Don't Cry, Daniel Beaty's Emergency, and the films Dearly Beloved and 4Lifers. Beyond acting, Tabitha is a professional model for AKL Eyewear and an aerial silks performer with Cirque Du Vie at The Point CDC. As a director, she's led productions of A Lovers' Quarrel and Changes, merging her technical stagecraft and acrobatic training into a bold, physical storytelling style. Tabitha approaches every project with depth, discipline, and a creative spirit that makes her voice onstage and off impossible to ignore.

